Dear Dr. Adish C. Aggarwala,

Re - Impeachment of Chief Justice, Dr. Shirani A. Bandaranayake

I thank you for the Statement issued by you on behalf of the International Council of Jurists (ICJ) vis-à-vis, the impeachment of Chief Justice, Dr. Shirani A. Bandaranayake. Previously, I had addressed my e-mail dated 10th January 2013 to ICJ Asia-Pacific Regional Director, Sam Zarifi, ICJ Legal Advisor, Shelia Varadan, ICJ Secretary General, Wilder Tayler, forwarding copies of relevant communications forwarded to UNHRC.

As far back as February 9, 2012, I had put in issue before the Supreme Court of Sri Lanka, the matter of 'perceived judicial bias and disqualification on the part of Chief Justice, Dr. Shirani A. Bandaranayake' and to be a person requiring enhanced scrutiny of financial affairs, as a 'politically exposed person' in terms of Article 52 of the UN Convention Against Corruption, upon her husband having accepted political office.

In the foregoing circumstances, I am forwarding the attached documents for you to be apprised of the salient facts, vis-à-vis, the impeachment of Chief Justice, Dr. Shirani A. Bandaranayake, which I am confident you would appreciate.

1. My Written Submission dated February 9, 2012 tendered to the Supreme Court, which was returned without being accepted
2. My final Petition to the Supreme Court dated October 18, 2012 – I particularly draw attention to paragraph 13 on pages 26-40 thereof
3. My Affidavit to the Hon. Speaker of Parliament dated January 5, 2013, which, inter-alia, discloses the ex-parte Minutes made in Chambers by certain Justices on my aforesaid Petition, without having heard me
4. An Article published in the Media by me titled – "Constitutional interpretations & expeditious judicial procedure ?"; which discloses the perverseness of the Supreme Court interpretation of January 1, 2013, and based upon which the Court of Appeal issued a Writ on January 7, 2013

I have just completed a series of Books on real case studies on fraud and corruption, economic crime, public finance and rule of law, published and marketed by US publisher AuthorHouse.
